

NEW LIVE TRAINING SERIES: REBOOT YOUR REVIEW PRACTICE

I am hosting a LIVE online training series called 2020 Reboot. Click here to access the Principles of Appropriate Pushback in Your Review to see how this compares with your current practice.

I am joined by Dr John Fox, Senior Lecturer at the University of Portsmouth & Lead Reviewer.

The training is designed to apply to all forms of review, exploring when it is appropriate to exert challenge, reversing the default position from inevitability around delay.

Join us on 30th September 2020 at 1pm for this FREE live training & be sure to leave with takeaways to implement in your next review. Click here to reserve your seat.

'How to Avoid Unnecessary Delay In Reviews Involving Parallel Proceedings' by Dr John Fox & Donna Ohdedar

In this training we will share:

- How to make the Principles of Pushback work for you, whilst maintaining respect & integrity around both processes & what they need to achieve.
- What pushback might achieve for you & others in each of the 4 stages & how a good ending may look
- THE BIG QUESTION: Once any resistance has been understood during a review's early stages, how to negotiate on the most appropriate point at which a step may legitimately be taken

SILP is a learning model which engages practitioners & families in case reviews, focussing on why those involved acted in a certain way. With a systems focus to reviewing cases, SILP prioritises strengths in practice to promote an open learning environment. Proportionality of process & report is one of SILP's underpinning principles. Donna Ohdedar, Head of SILP, has 16 years public sector experience, including her last role as Head of Law for a leading metropolitan authority. Now a safeguarding adviser & trainer, Donna is involved in serious case reviews in both children's and adults' safeguarding, domestic homicide reviews and is a SILP Reviewer and Mentor. Donna offers 'SILP School' her university accredited training course, CPD for reviewers & a free online network for leaders in review practice. Click here to join.

Dr John Fox is a Senior Lecturer at the University of Portsmouth. He was previously a police officer for 31 years, his last role was as Detective Superintendent and Head of Public Protection. John is experienced in the traditional SCR approach as well as having worked on reviews using SILP and SCIE methodology.
